Chetan Kalamkar Says:

I am alumnus of KKWIEER, from 2009 batch. Before graduating from the college, I was placed in India's biggest software company, Tata Consultancy Services (TCS). I worked for TCS in Pune for 3 years. To prepare for the Civil Services Exam, I quit TCS in 2013. I could successfully clear prestigious UPSC Civil Services Exam in 2013. I am now part of Indian Revenue Services (IRS). Presently I am posted as Assistant Commissioner of Income Tax in Karnataka. During engineering in KKWIEER, I could develop abilities such as analytical skills, critical examination of issues etc. These abilities helped me in my career both in TCS and now in IRS.
