

K.K Wagh Institute Of Engineering Education And Research, Nashik
Department of Management Studies

A live screening of the most awaited Interim Union Budget 2019 -20 was organized in the department. A healthy discussion on different sectors was carried out after the screening.

Students were asked to note important points from the finance minister's speech. Later discuss was conducted to understand the impact of the new budget on different sectors and economy.