THIRD ONLINE EXECUTIVE TRAINING PROGRAM

‘CONFLICT AND WORK MANAGEMENT’ ON 31st October 2020

The above program was conceived by the department with an aim to enhance Industry Institute Interaction. A team was formed under the leadership of Prof. Amrutha Hippalgaonkar under the overall guidance of Dr. K. N. Nandurkar (Principal) and Dr. S. P. Dhake (I/c HOD, MBA) with the support of trainers Mr. Dharmesh Mehta and Mr. G. U. Shrinivar for organizing the training program. 22 participants from 10 reputed industries have participated in the training program. The first half session (10:30 am to 12:00 pm) was coordinated by trainer, Mr Dharmesh Mehta. The post lunch session from 1:00 pm to 2:00 pm was coordinated by trainer, Mr. G. U. Shrinivar, a Director of Trainman Associates India.

The participants took keen interest to understand the crucial role of self in any organisation and their practical implications to solve the conflicts and work in a team. Conflict solving through the Epics of Mahabharata and Ramayana was dealt by MR. Dharmesh Mehta which gave a profound knowledge on handling the situation faced while working in any Industry. MR. G. U. Shrinivar has enlightened the participants by the proactive approach to any conflicting situation they face in day to day life and effective decision making to tackle the need of the hour was discussed. The day ended with Q & A session followed by Feedback session. The participants expressed their sense of gratitude for arranging an effective program with lots of information to inculcate for their future growth. They look forward for more such programs.
