

Department of Electronics & Telecommunication Engineering
K. K. Wagh Institute of Engineering Education and Research
Hirabai Haridas Vidyanagari, Amrut Dham, Panchavati, Nashik-03

Report of Expert Talk

Topic of Expert Talk: Applications of transformers on Indian railways

Resource Person: Mr. Vinyak N. Bodade (Sr. Section Engineer, central railways, Nashik)

Date: 03rd October 2019

Time: 1pm to 2:00pm

Venue: AV Hall, E & TC Department

Name of the course for which lecture was organized: Electrical circuits and Machines

Target Participants: Students of SE (E&TC) class and SE (ELTX) class.

Organizer: Dr. K. S. Holkar (Asso. Professor, E&TC department), Ms. J. R. Shinde (Asst. Professor, E&TC department)

Outcomes of Expert Talk:

1. Students will be able to know the different transformers used in Indian railways.
2. Students will get knowledge about High voltage and low voltage transformers.
3. Students will be able to know the applications of different transformers in used in different sections of railways.

Photograph:

