

K. K. Wagh Institute of engineering education and research, Nashik

Report on SE Orientation Program

A.Y: 2018-19

Date of orientation program: 10/7/2018

Branch: E&TC, ELTX

Orientation Program of SE E&TC and ELTX was organized at Audio Video Hall of E&TC department on 10th July 2018 at 12.30pm. 34 students of E&TC and 36 students of ELTX attended the program. Program started by welcome speech of Dr. D.M Chandwadkar sir H.O.D E&TC department. While giving introduction of E&TC department he explained vision, mission and program specific outcomes to students. He gave introduction of all faculty members and their contribution to the department. He explained various innovative teaching learning processes used by faculty. While explaining Initiatives for Curricular Enhancement he put light on various activities like Industrial Visit, Expert talk, Workshops organized in department for students. While talking about research culture of the department he told students about various research grants, awards received by faculty, he also put light on research papers published and consultancy work done by faculty. He also mention about DST-DHI sanctioned research grant of amount 150.81 lakhs received for the project ‘Technology Pilot for DC Charging technologies for EV Bus’. He motivated students by sharing success stories of our distinguished alumni. He concluded his presentation by giving key to success and wish best of luck to the students for their bright future.

After HOD sir’s presentation faculty coordinator gave brief introduction of following activities: Astro club, Exam, SAEE, IETE, Library, Myexamo, Audit course, Website, Alumni, T&P, ISTE, Mentoring, NPTEL, and NSS

Photograph of event:

